Estimated Budgetary Effects of Title IX, Committee on Science, Space, and Technology, H.R. 5376, the Build Back Better Act, as Passed by the House Committee on Rules on November 3, 2021 (Rules Committee Print 117-18), as Amended by Yarmuth Amendment 112

Notes

Components may not sum to totals because of rounding.

Estimates for title IX reflect the passage of H.R. 3684, the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act.

Budget authority reflects appropriations specifically provided in title IX or amounts estimated by CBO.

The costs of title IX fall within budget functions 250 (general science, space, and technology), 270 (energy), 300 (natural resources and environment), 350 (commerce and housing credit), 400 (transportation), and 450 (community and regional development).

DOE = Department of Energy; NASA = National Aeronautics and Space Administration; NIST = National Institute of Standards and Technology; NSF = National Science Foundation; PFAS = perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances; * = between zero and $500,000.

Title IX would not increase on-budget deficits after 2031.

Title IX contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.
