S. 1354 would amend the National Trails System Act to designate 17 miles of trail within the Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park in Alaska as the Chilkoot National Historic Trail. The bill also would direct the Bureau of Land Management to study the feasibility of designating the Alaska Long Trail, which runs for about 500 miles from Seward, Alaska, to Fairbanks, Alaska, as a national scenic trail.

Using information from the National Park Service, CBO expects that the designation of the Chilkoot National Historic Trail would have no significant cost. Additionally, CBO estimates that conducting the trail feasibility study would cost less than $500,000 over the 2022-2026 period; such spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Madeleine Fox. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.
